I CONVENCION OREGONIANA

The Instituto de Cultura Oregoniana (ICO) announces the celebration of the first Convención Oregoniana, which will be held at the Salem Public Library (Salem, OR) on Saturday, May 25, 2019. The purpose of this free and public unique event is to celebrate the Hispanic heritage of the Oregonianos (Spanish speaking Oregonians), and to recognize the contributions of our Spanish media professionals throughout the state.

One of the event highlights will be the unveiling of a new book that offers a previously unknown perspective into the history and the origins of Oregon and the Northwestern United States.

The event will begin with workshops in the morning followed by a Gala in the afternoon. The Gala will feature the unveiling of the book; remarks by the Consul of Mexico, Beatriz Navarro Parada; and classical and folk string performances. Please see the following agenda for details.
